Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 01 May 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- Species 1 – Ball screw device wherein the holding member is manufactured by sheet metal press processing.
- Species 2 – Ball screw device wherein the holding member is manufactured by drawing processing.
- Species 3 – Ball screw device wherein the holding member covers 60% or more of a part of the circulating member; Figures 10-13 and 14-18.
- Species 4 – Ball screw device wherein a rib for reinforcement is provided on the holding member; Figures 19-20.
- Species 5 – Ball screw device wherein a convex is formed at a part of the bent portion of the holding member; Figure 21.
- Species 6 – Ball screw device wherein a bent portion for reinforcement is provided on a seat of the holding member; the holding member formed by sheet metal press processing; Figures 22-28.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

- Claim 2 – Species 1
- Claim 3 – Species 2
- Claim 4 – Species 3 – Figures 10-13 and 14-18
- Claim 5 – Species 4 - Figures 19-20
- Claim 6 – Species 5 – Figure 21
- Claim 8 – Species 6 – Figures 22-28
- Claim 9 – Species 6 – Figures 22-28

The following claim(s) are generic:

- Claim 1 – Figures 1-3
- Claim 7 – Figures 1-3

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

- While a ball screw device is common to all of the species identified above, the species lack a special technical feature. The common ball screw device, which includes a screw shaft, nut screw, plurality of rolling elements, circulating member, and metallic holding member lacks unity a posteriori since the ball screw device is known and not a technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art. The remaining subject matter in each species (60% coverage, rib, convex, bent portion, sheet metal press processing, and drawing processing) lacks a unifying novel inventive concept common to all.
